

NEWSPAPER CLIPPING ANNOUNCING THE DEATH OF CONRAD LAURITZ
HOLM (HE DIED JANUARY 6-1943).

Death Announcement

Merchan Conrad L. Holm, Hegra, has died, at the age of 62.

He was born in Hegra and came into business life at an early age. He started at Lundgren's store at Hell in 1900 (village close to Hegra) and later he was in the large firm A-S Lindgård in Hegra and then for many years with B. Schwer and Hegra Samvirkelag (a co-op grocery store). For several years he ran his own store in Sona and in Hegra. He was a well qualified counter assistant and gained many friends. He was also a writer and has published a collection of poems and a book of stories. He was also a keen mission friend and temperance man and for a while he was a member of Inntrøndelag (Inner Trøndelag) Regional Council of D.N.T. (no idea what this stands for), and the chairman of Hegra temperance association for more than 20 years.
